Big Sir Report: By Hugh Campbell

Hi Sirs, I was glad to see another good turn out for our luncheon. You must admit that Trio's Cafe & Catering is doing an excellent job in serving and preparing our lunch. I'm sure we all found our speaker, Bill Randolph, extremely interesting in his telling of his flight around the world. He is scheduled to complete his story of what happened after he left Rome the next time he visits us. I'm looking forward to hearing the rest of adventure. See you next month.

August Menu: BBQ Chicken Qtrs. w/corn on the cob, rosemary red potatoes, soup, salad & dessert

Golf: By Bob Earl

We had a good turnout at Salinas Fairways on July 10. Twelve aspiring old hackers attacked the fairways with abandon Ken Gress was the big winner with a nice net 66. Second place went to Bob Pendergrass with a net 67. Nate Johnson came in third with a net 68. The following in descending order were Jim Westphal, Mike Madsen, Irv Bender, Gene Tonus, Bob Romo, Bob Earl, Joe Manriquez, Hugh Campbell and Cary Tremewan. The weather was pleasant but windy and a little smoky. It really is nice to see more participation with summer weather finally here. Next month's outing will be at Rancho Canada West on August 14.

Treasurer's Report: By Ed Gularte

Our June BBQ generated profit of $173.90 with attendance of 73 paid admissions. June 1 balance was $1832.19. Buck bucket was $29.00. July 1 balance was $2000.81.
