Big SIR Report: By Hugh Campbell

Hi SIRs. We had a good turnout for our last luncheon and for the few of you that missed it, it was FREE. Mark your calenders for our picnic next month at Toro Park. Bring a guest or guests, the more the merrier. Don't forget to send in your reservation to Ed Gularte. As I mentioned at the luncheon, we are looking for oak firewood for our picnics so if you have a lead on some, let us know. See you all next month.

Golf: By Bob Earl

We had another good turnout (3 foursomes) at Rancho Canada East on Aug. 14. Jim Brown was the big winner with a net 66. Cary Tremuwan was second with a net 70. Third place was a tie with Ed Gularte and Mike Madsen at net 74. Also attending were Gene Tonus, George McCrobie, Bob Pendergrass, Irv Bender, Larrie Huston, Nate Johnson, Jim Westphal and yours truly. I do have a bone to pick with the weather man. Next month we will be at Salinas Fairways (Sept. 11) and I am hoping for warmer weather.

I do not like to turn anybody away that wants to golf, but the fairways allows fivesomes so I will accept everybody that wants to play in Salinas. I love the fact that more guys are wanting to play so in the future I will try to reserve 4 tee times when we play out of town. It is very important that I get responses as soon as possible so I can cancel a tee time that is not needed.
