

Speaker for May

Ed Durkee, President and CEO of Goodwill Central Coast

Ed Durkee is a lifelong advocate for social justice and economic inclusion. With extensive experience in workforce and community development, he views his work as a way to create economic opportunity for people who wouldn't otherwise have it. Ed's diverse background includes administering the Workforce Investment Act for the State of Indiana, creating affordable housing as the president of a community development corporation in Indianapolis, and creating Prosperity Centers in both Oregon and California. He has worked with four Goodwill affiliates over the last 15 years including Indianapolis, IN; Eugene, OR; and Sacramento, CA where he created innovative platforms that help families achieve financial stability. He is now the President and CEO of Goodwill Central Coast.

Please welcome the new addition to our barnyard.

Today's Humor.....Vow of Silence

A man wanted to become a monk so he went to the monastery and talked to the abbot (the head monk). The abbot said, "You must take a vow of silence and can only say two words every three years." The man agreed.

After the first three years, the abbot came to him and said, "What are your two words?" "Food cold!" the man replied. The abbot made sure the meals are not cold.

Three more years went by and the abbot came to him and said, "What are your two words?"

"Robe dirty!" the man exclaimed. The abbot ordered his robe be washed.

Three more years went by and the abbot came to him and said, "What are your two words?"

"Bed hard!". The abbot made sure the mattress got re-stuffed.

Three more years went by and the abbot came to him and said, "What are your two words?"

- "I quit!" said the man.

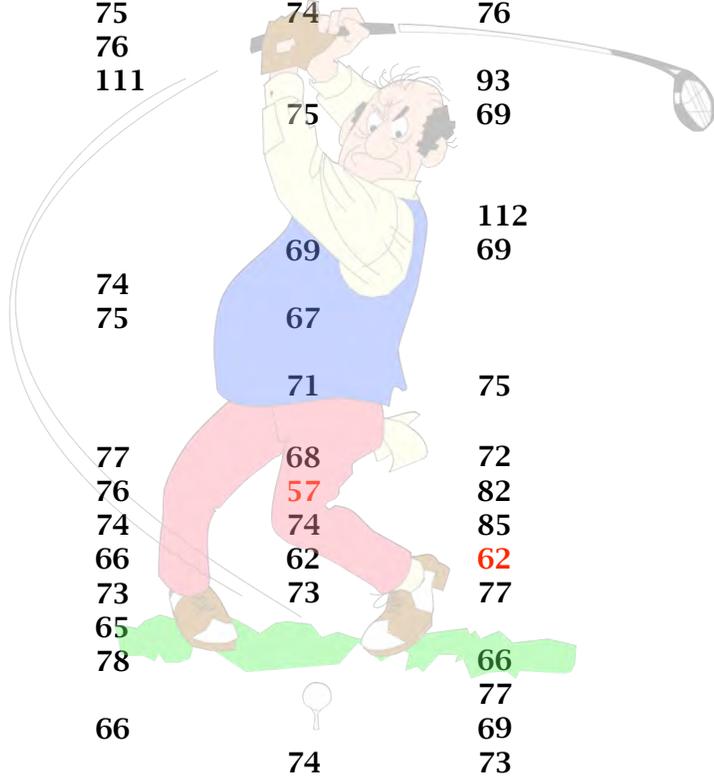

"Well," the abbot replied, "I'm not surprised - you've done nothing but complain since you got here!"
